This month I'm putting the spotlight on my HEARTS collection. You might think I'd have been better waiting until closer to Valentine's Day, but thankfully February has no monopoly on love and everything else that my hearts represent.

From My Heart to Yours

A symbol of love, of course, but also of connection and remembrance, every ceramic heart is handmade with great care and thought put into every one. And each one is therefore unique, as are all our hearts.

In the weeks leading up to Thanksgiving and Christmas, many of us are wondering if we'll get to spend the holidays with those we love this year. It's been a tough year, but I like to think there's always room for hope in our hearts for better days ahead.

My little ceramic heart gifts are the perfect way to reach out to those you love and let them know you're thinking of them.

Poppy and Allium Hearts

These beautiful ceramic hearts are hand painted with favourite flowers, poppy and allium, which grow in abundance in my garden.

Irish Hearts

My Irish hearts come with the gaelic message “le grá” [said “leh ghraw”] meaning “with love” and a new edition, just recently added to the collection, is “le chéile” [said “leh kayla”] meaning “together”.

Line Hearts

“The line depicts our journey...
connecting us wherever we are in the world.”

These 'line' hearts have special significance for me this year as my eldest son has recently moved to Australia. Although he's far away I still feel that line of connection stretching out to him wherever he goes.

Nestled Hearts Gift Sets

Our nestled hearts gift sets are especially popular for celebrating weddings and new babies.

These handmade ceramic heart sets with our unique signature green glaze come in sets of two or three hearts.

Glazed on the inside only to create a beautiful contrast.

My ceramic hearts are a great way to say thank you, congratulations, to comfort a friend, or send love to children and loved ones across the world.

Perfect too for weddings, christenings, anniversaries and of course, for Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Each handcrafted heart comes with a satin red or green ribbon. It can be hung on the tree during Christmas and later kept somewhere close as a constant reminder of both the sentiment sent with it and the sender.

All gifts are presented in beautiful bespoke packaging and can be sent directly to your loved one with a handwritten personal message on a card.

From my studio in the heart of the Blackwater Valley in Co. Cork

Wishing you and yours well.
